The hip hop duo The Fire Brigade, is the project of Boxhead Walker and G'Odd. They've walked the Earth in the Early Apocalypse, viewing into the darkest corners of the world, and offering a glimpse to those who would fear to travel this path. They are a mainstay of the Dallas rap scene, and recently released the album "Underground Frequency" on the French boutique label Les Productions du Hibou. Begun at CF Hawn, a studio established by G'Odd with rappers from the Dallas neighborhood known as Greedy Grove, and later completed by MECCA mobile, the collection "Dallas, TeXXXas" are the first tracks with G'Odd on the beats, and no outside production. The single "Brain on Drugs" displays the duo's unique lyrical style, old school rap sensibility, and skills on the microphone. This will be the first Fire Brigade song to make its debut on their Free Music Archive site, and also be available to stream and download on Bandcamp. Hoist the Axe.
